TESTIMONIALS

"What can I say about Nedra? Nedra (aka Adventure Mom)is a rock star!

Many may categorize her as an "influencer", but that description is too cliché at this point.

Nedra is a true brand ambassador who takes pride in her partnerships. Nedra is selective with her partners and truly invested once connected. She has become more than a partnership for multiple brands within United Wheels and she has masterfully represented all of them."

Kris Parlett| Director, Brand & Integrated Marketing United Wheels/Huffy

"Nedra has been a pleasure to work with throughout the entire planning, hosting and followup process. Not only is she a talented blogger and communicator, it is evident by the content she produced that she absorbed the tips and information we provided but also did extensive research on her own and really got to know our destination. This has resulted in fantastic coverage and a great CVB-blogger relationship."
